

Press Release

Protergia is the New Official Sponsor of SEGAS (Hellenic Athletics Federation) and the Athens Classic Marathon

On June 22, Protergia Athens Street Pole Vault will be held in Syntagma Square with the participation of Olympic champion Katerina Stefanidi

Athens, Greece – May 31, 2018 – Protergia, the Power and Natural Gas Sector of MYTILINEOS, becomes the New Official Sponsor of SEGAS, the National Track-and-Field teams and SEGAS sport organization, including the Panhellenic Championships of Track and Field Athletics, the RUN GREECE competition series, the Athens Half Marathon and the Athens Classic Marathon.

In this context, Protergia will also be the Nominal Sponsor of the Athens Street Pole Vault event and will 'give its energy' to the international Women Pole Vaulting Competition. The event, part of the European Athletics Federation program, will take place on Friday June 22, at Syntagma Square, with the participation of top athletes such as the Greek Olympic Champion, Katerina Stefanidi, the World Champion Nikol Kyriakopoulou and other important athletes of the global athletics stage.

"PROTERGIA ATHENS STREET POLE VAULT" is organized for the 6th consecutive year and will be held in the heart of Athens, at Syntagma Square. The competition has hosted the world's elite of pole vaulters, showcasing talents such as Emmanouel Karalis and offering a spectacle of international caliber in the heart of Athens.

Vivian Bouzali, Communication & Marketing Strategy Director in MYTILINEOS said the following regarding this partnership: "As a pillar of its sponsoring actions, Protergia supports top running events through forms of cooperation and initiatives promoting the sporting spirit. With the tagline 'Run together, run with energy', Protergia is proudly standing by athletes and citizens participating in SEGAS' running events, including the top event of Athens Classic Marathon, giving its energy and paving the way towards a modern way of life which nurtures the principles of athleticism"

With regard to the company's business activity, Ms Bouzali stresses: "Protergia, the largest independent electricity producer, with a portfolio of 1200 MW thermal units and 200 MW of renewable energy sources, generates more than 10% of Greek electricity, dynamically continues its expansion in the retail energy market, offering modern and reliable services and combined electricity and natural gas packages with more than 100,000 meters / electricity supplies across the country".

On behalf of SEGAS, the Federation's President stated: "The Greek athletics gained much more power today. I would like to thank MYTILINEOS Company and Protergia for their confidence and support and I welcome them to SEGAS family. On June 22, we strongly kick-off, with "PROTERGIA ATHENS STREET POLE VAULT", the international premium meeting of our federation, bringing to Syntagma Square the most impressive track and field event, the pole vault, keeping on with determination to do whatever it takes to promote and develop this cooperation into a relationship of mutual benefit not only for Protergia and SEGAS, but for Greek society in general".
